1. The enclosed cartoon appeared in the Tägliche Rundschau on 15 August 1948. A free translation of the caption under it is, "Please, Grandmother, tell us the fairy-tale about the wonderfully successful Berlin airlift!" Notice that the date of the issue is 15 August 1948, but that the "date" of the cartoon is 1949.

2. Now that the airlift, contrary to this sarcastic prediction, has proved itself more than a fairy-tale, it is suggested that this cartoon might well be turned against its originators by being reprinted with appropriate comment in one of the publications with which we must maintain cordial relations.

This document is part of a file which must be filed. It separated from the file it was subjected to individual systematic review.
